1. The Intelligence School move to the Broyhill Building was completed without serious disturbance of the instructional program. The Intelligence Orientation Faculty continues to function in Headquarters Building until the completion of the Introduction to Intelligence Course on 22 November. [REDACTED] of the Intelligence Production Faculty will continue to work full time in Headquarters Building until the completion of the current phase of the Intelligence Production Course on 29 November. The Intelligence School's participation in the OTR move was planned and managed most efficiently by [REDACTED]

2. [REDACTED] will be released from the Intelligence School on 25 November and will assume her new position as Administrative Assistant on the Historical Staff and Studies in Intelligence.

3. Chief IS has discussed with [REDACTED] the probable impact on the Intelligence School should an additional 75 JOT's be trained each year. The Intelligence School can, of course, meet such a requirement, either by eliminating some present activities or by adding to the instructional staff. Specific ways and means cannot be determined until the details of the requirement are known.

4. On 20 November Chief IS was the guest of Paul Franz at the FSI Counter-Insurgency Seminar and audited a lecture by Mr. Connett on the State Department's Command and Control Center.

5. A report from the Briefing Officer is not included in the attached reports. During the past two weeks, activities normally conducted by the Briefing Officer have been handled by members of the Intelligence Orientation Faculty and are reported by the Chief of that Faculty.
